Leman Locke: Locke Hotels' boutique aparthotel in East London

Situated in the heart of London's creative hub, Leman Locke is a luxury aparthotel that is designed for the needs of today's traveller. The 168-studio property boasts the eclectic Treves & Hyde coffee shop, restaurant and cocktail bar, Locke yoga studio, gym and co-working spaces.

Each of the studios revolve around Locke's luxurious living spaces, allowing guests to surround themselves in space and comfort. With bespoke bathrooms and fully-fitted kitchens, the studios are ideal for long and short stays. Each of Leman Locke's apartments has been meticulously designed for harmonious living, with a soft, powdery pastel colour palette.

Minutes from The City, Tower Bridge and Brick Lane, Leman Locke is the most accessible boutique aparthotel in East London, an area recognised as the capital's creative culinary epicentre. Located in London's Aldgate, the venue was designed by acclaimed New York architects and designers Grzywinski+Pons.

The Treves & Hyde restaurant is uniquely designed to be the type of venue where you can lounge and dine throughout the day. The restaurant sources local and organic produce that reflects the seasonality of the ingredients.

Located beneath a pink spiralling staircase, the vibrant coffee bar, Shaman, offers third wave coffee from local roasters, a selection of hand-crafted sandwiches, viennoiseries, cold pressed juices and teas. An ideal spot to socialise, relax and work.

Leman Locke hosts a consciously curated programme of experiences inspired by its thriving East London location, from regular art exhibitions and live music performances, to weekly yoga and running classes.
